Sir,

Courts - Village Panchayats - Kollegal Taluk.

G.O.No.278-P.H., dated 16th February 1923.

In para 3 of G.O.No.278-P.H., dated 16-2-1923, Government declined to make vaccination compulsory in the following nine villages of the Kollegal Taluk and instructed the President, District Board, Coimbatore, to write to me, if necessary, for the establishment of village courts in those villages:-

1. Palaiyam
2. Lokkanahalli
3. Kundur
4. Alahalli
5. Doddinduvadi
6. Bandahalli
7. Ramepuram
8. Porsigoundan-palaiyam
9. Suleripalaiyam

2/

2. At the instance of the President, Taluk Board, Kollegal, I consulted the local officers in the matter of establishment of Village Panchayat Courts in the nine villages above referred to. The local officers suggest that two Village Panchayat Courts may be established, one at Lokkanhalli and the other at Kundur and that the following villages may be attached to the Panchayat Courts noted against them for the trial of vaccination offences:-

	Villages.	Panchayat Courts.
1.	Palayiam.	Kongarahalli
2.	Alahalli.	Kundur
3.	Doddiniuvadi.	Kongarahalli
4.	Bandahalli.	Hanur
5.	Ramapuram.	Cowdalli
6.	Suleripalaiyam.	Hanur

They also suggest that the question of introducing compulsory vaccination in Porsi oundanpalayam may be dropped, as it is an out of the way village, too far from Lokkanhalli. Their recommendations have my support.

3. I enclose a copy of the resolution passed by the Taluk Board, Kollegal, on 27-8-1923 in the matter and request that the proposals made in para 2 above may be sanctioned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Courts - Village Panchayat - Kollegal Taluk - Memorandum No. 4453 B-2, dated 13-11-23.

The following six villages in the Kollegal Taluk are highly factious and the local officers consider that village Panchayat Courts in those villages will not be successful, in view of the fact that even the existing Panchayat Courts in the taluk have not been working satisfactorily. The information called for in the memorandum is given below:-

Villages.	Village Panchayat Courts with which to be attached.	Distance in miles.

The Collector's proposals are to establish Panchayat Courts at Lokkanahalli and Kundur and to attach the 6 villages mentioned at pr 2 cf to the existing Panchayat Courts situated against them for the trial of Vaccination Offences. The distance from these villages to the Panchayat Courts referred to has not been given. It is that this information may be called for from the Collector

Please see the Collector's reply. Separate Panchayat Courts cannot be formed for the 6 villages referred to. The Collector's proposal is to attach these 6 villages to certain Panchayat Courts for the trial of Vaccination Offences. The distances from these villages to the Panchayat Courts to which they are to be attached are now given by the Collector. The largest distance pr 6-7 cf is 7 miles ~~and that is~~ but this only in the case of one village. All the others are within 6 miles. Apart from the objection as to distance there is the further objection that the Panchayat Courts in question can be given jurisdiction over the new villages only by their abolition and reconstitution with altered jurisdiction. This would mean fresh elections in the case of 6 villages which are said to be highly factious. For orders whether the 6 villages may not therefore be excluded.

This is not worth all the trouble of abolishing & reconstituting new courts. There are already courts in the taluk. We may ask the D.M. to endeavour to establish new courts in the six places in question. Gradually may grow out.

I appreciate the necessity for co-operation on the part of Law Officers desires to introduce compulsory Vaccination. But when it is apparent that the P courts will not prima facie function well, we cannot well establish them solely for the purpose of Vaccination. In these cases, the extreme area of the factions militate against the pots discharging general criminal powers satisfactorily. So I think the proposal to constitute such courts should drop.

As already observed in this department's note dated 29.10.1923, the district boards are competent to declare vaccination compulsory in non union areas - vide ~~p6 389~~ page 1 supra. In the present case the Collector has moved in the matter at the instance of the P.T.B. Kollegal & the opinion of the Taluk Board alone has been obtained. It would thus seem necessary that the Dt. Board should be consulted in the ~~first~~ matter before agreeing to the Law Secy's suggestion that the proposal to constitute the village panchayat courts referred to may be dropped. May the Collector be asked to obtain the views of the Coimbatore Dt. Bd in the matter?

The L.S.G. Dept agrees that the recommendation of the Collector to drop the proposal may be accepted. It will be seen from the second letter of the Collector that his objection to the formation of Panchayat Courts applies only to six villages. In his first letter in addition to these 6 villages the Collector proposed that Panchayat Courts may be formed at Lokkankalli and Kundur. It does not appear that there are any objections in forming Panchayat Courts at these two places. The information as to when these Courts can be brought into actual working order may be called for from the Collector and at the same time the Collector may be told that the Govt: also do not think it advisable to form Panchayat Courts in the 6 villages referred to in view of their fractious nature.
